I'm Here
(Andrews)

I see you running, running all over this town
I see your smile melt into a frown
I see you wearing your party crown
But you're thinking today
You might want to come down
But you're scared it will hurt
When you hit the dirt
And there's no one around

But I'm here
To wash away your doubt
To make it all work out
That's what love's all about

I see people, people stop and stare
I see you act like you don't even care
You still believe that life has treated you unfair
But you're thinking today
You might say a short prayer
But you're scared you might find
That you're losing your mind

And that no one's there

But I'm here
To wash away your doubt
To make it all work out
That's what love's all about

Let the fears in your head subside
This unconditional love's not gonna hide
It's time we make a brand new start
Can you feel it in your heart

But I'm here
To wash away your doubt
To make it all work out
That's what love's all about

I'm never gonna stop
No, I'm never gonna stop
Love is all we got.
