For where have you been

Passing by

See a place I use to know
Lighting up a part of my past,
Familiar faces old and new.

Racing by

I see a face I used to know,
Look into the eyes of a friend,
But they don't know me anymore.

For where have you been,

Old friend of mine

Lost in the wilderness,

The loneliest time.

For where have you been,

Old friend of mine

Blinded by the merry go-round

Poisoned by the wine (poisoned by the wine)

Poisoned by the wine
