There's a hole in the over cast
The sun strikes through
And as I sit here I'm wondering
Is it shining on you?
Shining on you?
Let it shine

There is a distance I must keep from you
There's a hole in my heart
I'm still trying to understand
But I'm holding it in Yeah, I'm holding it in Holding it in

I just can't see you now
Face to face
Technicolor memories
I must erase
I just can't see you now
Face to face
I can't get over you

I've never cried before
It hurts to sleep alone
Still I had a lover last night
But she had your face
Yeah, she had your face
Had your face

I just can't see you now
Face to face
Technicolor memories
I must erase
I just can't see you now
Face to face
I can't get over you
No way no how
So

I just can't see you now
Face to face

Technicolor memories
I must erase
I just can't see you now
Face to face
I can't get over you
No way no how

No way no how
No way no how
