All these nights on fire, comin' in under the wire
Sometimes it can be too much
Wake up in the morning but the night is here again
Everything's changed but the same

Minutes turn to days, days into years
Time goes on and on
When there's a doubt tryin' to get out
Still something inside feels right

It's your heart, boy, talkin' back to you
It's your heart tellin' you

The big wheel turns, the money burns
Alive in the light again
I gotta wonder where it's takin' me
Right where I wanna be

It's your heart, boy, talkin' back to you
It's your heart tellin' you

It's your heart, boy, talkin' back to you
It's your heart tellin' you
It's your heart, boy, talkin' back to you
It's your heart tellin' you

It's your heart, it's your heart
It's your heart, it's your heart
