There was a time I wore a different face
I stood alone - feelings had no place
I'd given it all - taken nothing back
You brought this lonely heart back in from the cold

CHORUS 1

Just like a fire burnin' higher
You got my heart on a string
But now I know love changes everything

I don't need money - don't need no fame
Gained only wisdom from so long in the game
I built such a wall - love was just too dangerous
Turned around - you were right behind me
There to catch my fall

CHORUS1

Only a fool believes in a heart of steel
Yesterday's behind me now - oh oh

Just like a fire burnin' higher
She's got my heart on a string
But now I know love changes everything

Just like a fire - you got me burnin'
You got me on a string
But now I know love changes everything
