How high can you go before gravity pulls you
And I far can you run before they catch you and dress you
You won't get away unless you beg
How much can you steal before they come to arrest you
And how far will you go before they try to molest you
If you already let 'em caress you

Tell me
How can I take you down
Tell me
You look good in your four leaf crown

How far will you go just to show that you love me
And how much can you take before you're battered and bloody
Will you take it off in some [old funny]

Tell me
How can I take you down
Tell me
You look good in your four leaf crown
How much can you see with your pornographic memory
Can you see my face
Or can you come without a trace

How long can you wait before your life is over
And how much can you drink before you want to be sober
Will you ever find your four leaf clover
How cruel can you be before I try to forget you
How much can you lose everything, I bet you You're crooked and they won't correct you

Tell me
How can I take you down
Tell me
You look good in your four leaf crown
I said tell me, how can I take you down
Tell me
How can I take you down
Tell me

You look good in your four leaf crown
Tell me
Tell me
