Hoo, yeah

Oh, well, I left home
About a month ago
I had no place
Where I could go

So I jumped in my black Cadillac
I had no parts of looking back
I was driving down Highway Five
I was going to the place
That I knew would keep me alive

I'm rocking and a rolling
On the streets of Hollywood
Rocking and a rolling
Don't know if I could

Rocking and a rolling
On the streets of Hollywood
Rocking and a rolling
Don't know if I could

Hey, yeah well, I checked in
At the Holiday Inn
My phone kept ringing
It was my best friend, yeah

Well, I set down
On my bed and I cried
I was trying to figure out
If I wanted to

Rocking and a rolling
On the streets of Hollywood
Rocking and a rolling
Don't know if I could, woo hoo

Rocking and a rolling
On the streets of Hollywood
Rocking and a rolling
Don't know if I could

Hey, yeah

Having a good time
Having a party
Everybody singing
Everybody dancing

Having a good time
Gonna get funky
Gonna part hearty
Hoo, hoo, hoo

Rocking and a rolling
On the streets of Hollywood
Rocking and a rolling
Don't know if I could, woo hoo

Rocking and a rolling
Hey, yeah, rocking and a rolling
Don't know if I could
Yeah, yeah

There's a party
Gonna have a good time
Hollywood swinging

Going to the Rainbow
Going to the Roxy
Going down to the Whiskey
On down to the Starwood

Gonna get funky
Come on, Hollywood swinging
Gonna get funky
Everybody bumping

Rocking and a rolling
On the streets of Hollywood
Don't know if I could...

Hoo hoo, yeah...
