Money can't buy it
Money can't buy it
Money can't buy it
Honeyz

You'd better believe I'll stand my ground
Boy I won't take it lying down

You'd better believe I'll stand my ground
Boy I won't take it lying down

You've keep acting strange whenever she's around Your headed for danger, let there be no doubt Sneaking round here late, creepin' out the house Well honey my suspicion is the only thing I'm gonna be getting aroused

Boy I won't take it lying down
Find you've been messing around
You'd better believe I'll stand my ground
Boy I won't take it lying down
I'm gonna give it to you direct
Boy don't give me no dis-respect
You'd better believe I'll stand my ground
Boy I won't take it lying down

Said sweetest things, caught me off my guard Promised me a diamond ring, say he'll put it on his platinum card
How was I to know, he was hittin' on my best friend
Telling me then telling her the same sweet lies
Over and over again

When your gonna wake up?
When your gonna wake up?
To reality (you can't keep nothing from me)
(oh no)
When your gonna wake up? (wake up)
When your gonna wake up?
I'm gonna make a scene gonna make a scene

Money can't buy it
Honeyz

Boy I won't take it lying down
Find you've been messing around
You'd better believe I'll stand my ground
Boy I won't take it lying down
I'm gonna give it to you direct
Boy don't give me no dis-respect
You'd better believe I'll stand my ground
Boy I won't take it lying down

There ain't no smoke without fire
That boy's a natural liar
You'd better believe I'll stand my ground
Boy I won't take it lying down
He'll tell you whatever you want to hear
And when he's down he'll dissappear
You'd better believe I'll stand my ground
Boy I won't take it lying down

You've been acting strange whenever she's around Your headed for danger let there be no doubt Sneaking round here late
Creepin' out the house
Well honey my suspison is the only thing I'm gonna be getting aroused
