I'm spinning a record composed in your image. the needle is dragging without digging scars. i'll get it right this time. get it right next time. i want you to know that i'm ok. just slice a smile on that luscious face. smell the roses and inhale their thorns it's working out for the best. pick your poison a heart or a kiss. this kiss is not for you and i'm not sorry. i'm writing a letter sent in a bottle. i hope it reaches you before it's too late. i'll get it right this time. get it right next time. i will finally smile when that look on your face is gone. when those lips that betray perpetually turn white. pick your poison a heart or a kiss. this kiss is not for you and i'm not sorry. this is passion. drink up my dear your glass slippers are cracking. a good stiff drink to keep you warm. let's up the ante we'll sleep for goodbye you'll forget me in the morning so what was i worth anyway
