Are you nervous sweetheart? Standing in your driveway face to face. No one knows what to say now. But you know me I'll take anything from you tonight soÂ...Take my hand and runaway with me, take our time with our goodbyes. Are you dreaming sweetheart? Standing in your mind's eye it's you and me. And this feels so perfect now. Like this was meant to be, you and me standingÂ...in your eyesÂ...I can't get over them. I didn't want to I never want to. Take my hand and runaway with me, take our time with our goodbyes.
Your hand lets go of mine and I watch you fall away. In your eyes I can't get over them. I didn't want to I never want to. Take my hand and runaway with me, take our time with our goodbyes. It dies tonight in your eyes
