Im a sucker for a smile and a girl that likes to dance
I cant wait to get underneath your skin if you only knew how bad I want to get inside
I cant be too forward Ive got to be cautious
I always put my heart out on my sleeve
Every love life needs a romance
If your willing to give us a chance then I,
Ill meet you in California,
California, Ill be waiting to See you in California,
At a midnight rendezvous, dont be late
My heart is in my throat
I use a drink to wash it down, wash it down,
And suddenly you shake the world
Refashioning all the light in the room
Just by walking through the door
I want to come over and throw myself around you
Im anxiously awaiting your arrival Make me believe theres a reprieve coming over onto me
If you're on your way Ill meet you in California,
California, Ill be waiting to See you in California,
At a midnight rendezvous, dont be late
Take all of this, take all of this away (2x),
Off in the distance I see the horizon, Depleting the line between love and our lust is receding,
Its thoughts fill my head my heart begins beating
Faster and faster until it is bleeding for you, California, California, Ill be waiting to See you in California,
At a midnight rendezvous, dont be late
