I was the one forced to defend my innocence
But her eyes got me stuck
Light in the dark broken in two like a China doll
But I love you too much to let you run

Obsession
Oh, obsession
I die by your side
Obsession
Oh, obsession
I die by your side, yeah

A moment alone crack in the stone
I'm breaking down
But her smile weighs too much, yes it does
I'm outta control
You're all that I think about
But I love you too much to let you run, yeah

Obsession
Oh, obsession
I die by your side, yeah
Obsession
Oh, obsession
I die by your side, yeah

My thoughts twist and turning
Down this endless road
You hold my every thought
This wasn't ever love

Obsession
Oh, obsession
I die by your side
Obsession
Oh, obsession
I die by your side, yeah x2
