Like other day goes without any change
The feeling we live with still remains We're stuck in a hole and we're searching for anything to hold onto

There has to be somewhere that we can be safe
From the lives we live each day
There has to be somewhere that we can be far away

We have to escape and I will go anywhere if you just lead the way
Escape to a place where we'll be together, together
everyday
We have to escape

We could be living how we wanted to Instead of doing things we're forced to do With no one to tell us that we should be going through What they went through

There has to be someplace that nobody knows Somewhere we can only go There has to be someplace that we can be all alone

We have to escape and I will go anywhere if you just
lead the way
Escape to a place where we'll be together, together
everyday

We have to escape and I will go anywhere if you just
lead the way
Escape to a place where we'll be together, together
everyday
Together everyday, oh yeah

We have to escape
We have to escape

We have to escape and I will go anywhere if you just
lead the way
Escape to a place where we'll be together, together
everyday

We have to escape and I will go anywhere if you just
lead the way
Escape to a place where we'll be together, together
everyday
We have to escape
