All of the things that happened just so I can be here Who's pulling the strings? Do I have company?
'Cause I'd like to think that I'm in control of my own destiny
All of the signs begin to point the other way

Who would have known that I'd be standing right here next to you
'Cause I never saw it coming Who would have known that I'd get control of things I do
All the could have should haves
Never would have happened anyway

Maybe it's me or maybe there's something more to it I believe what I see 'cause seeing is believing And I like to think that I'm in control of when and how I go
What if I stepped outside and I got blown away

Who would have known that I'd be standing right here
next to you
'Cause I never saw it coming
Who would have known that I'd get control of things I
do
All the could have should haves
Never would have happened to me
All the could have should haves
Never would have happened anyway

Happened anyway
Happened anyway

I never saw it coming, I never saw it coming (Happened anyway)
I never saw it coming, I never saw it coming
All the could have should haves
Never would have happened to me
All the could have should haves
Never would have happened

Who would have known that I'd be standing right here

next to you
'Cause I never saw it coming
Who would have known that I'd get control of things I
do
All the could have should haves
Never would have happened to me

And now I know that everything that's going on around me
Is meant to be They're gonna happen anyway
