

Hoodoo Gurus "Death Ship"

Visit "Death Ship" on MotoLyrics.com

I am the captain of a ghostly crew
Sail the seven seas with nothing to do
The girl that I thought was untrue
Who really loved me, boo hoo, hoo

Near hidden reefs we appear in the gloom
Luring mariners to their doom
As we're condemned, we condemn others too
Who would love me? Who? Would you?

I'm on the Death Ship, I sail the sea alone
Death Ship, I can call no port home
Lost, lost souls cry to Hell in the wind
Let us in, let us in

Death Ship, I sail the sea alone
Death Ship, I can call no port home
Lost, lost souls cry to Hell in the wind
Let us in, let us in, yeah, let us in

I need someone who will die for me
To free me of this misery
I need someone to cry for me
Really love me, really

Really love me, really
Really love me, really
Really love me, really love me
Love me
