You told me goodbye and I believed you
Felt like I would die I didn't need to, no
'Cos you came back to me
And everything's like it used to be

All the good times we had we'll have again
All the good times we had we'll have again

If your love is mine then it will stand up, hey
To the test of time, it will stand up
It looked like we were through
But in our heart of hearts we knew

The good times we had we'll have again
All the good times we had we'll have again, and again

Now I know you'll always be my friend til the end
That means more to me than anything, hey, hey, hey

Who needs yesterday that's far behind us
It is, and memories only may serve to remind us
That what felt good before
Today we'll treasure so much more

All the good times we had we'll have again
All the good times we had we'll have again

All the good times we had we'll have again
All the good times we had we'll have again

Times we had
All the good times we had
Times we had
All the good times we had
Times we had
All the good times we had
Times we had
