I took my love out for a walk into the rain
The time had come when we should talk things out again
(Where did you go?) I can't recall,
(What did you do?) Not much at all,
The other side of paradise, paradise

If we were perfect we would know perfect love
But we're so different we can't go like a hand fits in a glove
(Where did you go?) I can't recall,
(What did you do?) Not much at all,
The other side of paradise, paradise, paradise

The other side, the other side of your love
Well, I'll cross that line, but that's not enough
It's too much

The other side, the other side of your love
Well, I'll cross that line, but that's not enough
No, it's too much

But in the end it will depend on you and me,
And if you still call yourself my friend you soon will see
It's in a way we treat ourselves and those all 'round
We must believe that we can help if we can Fight against our prejudice and try to straighten out this mess
(What did you do?) - I cannot recall,
(Where did you go?)- Not far at all
The other side of paradise
