When burdens seem to overcome
(There's a higher power)
Who's faithful and refuses none
(There's a higher power)

Then why ask men to help you through?
(There's a higher power)
They're helpless pilgrims just like you
(There's a higher power)

Let's sing it, shout it, walk it, talk it
(There's a higher power)
Lay down your soul 'cause Jesus bought it
(There's a higher power)

Amen, Amen, Amen, Amen
(There's a higher power)
Amen, Amen, Amen, Amen
(There's a higher power)

Those men have built these mighty guns
(There's a higher power)
They've built these automobiles that run
(There's a higher power)

But brothers and sisters mark this down
(There's a higher power)
They can't build you no heavenly crown
(There's a higher power)

Let's sing it, shout it, walk it, talk it

(There's a higher power)
Lay down your soul 'cause Jesus bought it
(There's a higher power)

Amen, Amen, Amen, Amen
(There's a higher power)
Amen, Amen, Amen, Amen
(There's a higher power)

Go tell them people lost in sin

They need not fear the works of men
Believe in Him who rest on high
Unless they do they'll surely die

Hey, let's sing it, shout it, walk it, talk it
(There's a higher power)
Lay down your soul 'cause Jesus bought it
(There's a higher power)

Amen, Amen, Amen, Amen
(There's a higher power)
Amen, Amen, Amen, Amen
(There's a higher power)

Let's sing it, shout it, walk it, talk it
(There's a higher power)
Lay down your soul 'cause Jesus bought it
(There's a higher power)

Amen, Amen, Amen, Amen
(There's a higher power)
Amen, Amen, Amen, Amen
(There's a higher power)
