No crocodile tears for the rest of your years
Its hard for me to understand
But ???? its clear I was right to fear that I'd let you slip through my hands
Now it seems nothing ever turns out like I planned
How did I let you slip right through my hands
To have and to hold
Now it sounds so cold
I'll be sad at Christmas this year
Now it seems nothing ever turns out like I planned
How do I get my life back in my hands
Now what do I do
I depended on you
I'll be sad at Christmas this year
I'll be sad at Christmas this year.... Oh
