Sunshine, oh, I need a Francis fix
'Cause I'm seeing you again no more
Whispering your name
And you smile and you laugh aloud

Is this a way to make you happy now?
Tell me, are you looking down?
Do you see us with a closet full of fear?

Well, I notified all the necessary people
They made me make a scene, girl
They understand my dreams and they criticize my life

So, I look ahead through things in the window
To see what I used to see
The bottom of that old fruit tree where
We sat to make our lies

And I'm so tired of your tomorrow
I'm gonna live it with my own, yet, I'm scared
Do you see us in a closet full of fear?

Now I feel the way it does every morning
When you see me leave again
Silence of my only friend
Helps to make me realize why

I'm so tired of your tomorrow
I'm gonna live it with my own, whether do you know I'm scared
Do you see us with a closet full of fear, full of fear?
