All I have is strictly forbidden
And all I have is strictly insane
We know, what we want
But, that's not always good for us
Insanity is not always despair

All I have means nothing to me
And all I give, is so much more
When nothing is left, there's nothing to lose
When there's nothing to lose, there is peace of the
mind

We all fall into oblivion
And history slowly fades
What's done doesn't matter
What matter's not done
All we have belongs to no one

All I have means nothing to me
And all I give, is so much more
When there's nothing to lose, there is peace of the
mind

All I have means nothing to me
And all I give, is so much more
When there's nothing to lose, there is peace of the
mind

When there's nothing to lose, there is peace of the
mind
When there's nothing to lose, there is peace of the
mind
When there's nothing to lose, there is peace of the
mind
