Bought this guitar
At a shop called mars
But on the way back home
Strange things happened in my car
Started to play
All by itself
Creatures jumped from
The highest shelf
Until I touched string 12
This magnificent tree
Appeared in my mind
Even without leaves
It's strength was divine
Synthesized gnomes
Penetrated this godly zone
Summer was thrown off
It's royal thrown
This magnificent tree
Appeared in my mind
Even without leaves
It's strength was divine
