accepting new ideas is hard holding on to the past is too easy can't you see we've got to move on our world is constantly speeding the stars are still intriguing the tears in our eyes feed happiness for the next miles these visions make us desperate give us hope
the end is always the start of a new episode feel free to interact with the plot the choice can really mean a lot just try to translate this secret code these prophecies are frightening evoke artificial lightning watch out cause it can strike you the remedy is inside you
these visions make us desperate
give us hope

your choice can really mean a lot
just try to translate this secret code these visions makes us desperate
give us hope
the end is always the start of a new episode
just try to
just try to translate this...
