Accepting new ideas is hard
Holding on to the past
It's too easy can't you see
We've got to move on

Our world is constantly speeding
The stars are still intriguing
The tears in our eyes
Feed happiness for the next miles

These visions make us desperate
Give us hope
The end is always the start of a
New episode
Feel free to interact with the plot
The choice can really mean a lot
Just try to translate this secret code

These prophecies are frightening
Evoke artificial lightning
Watch out cause it can strike you

The remedy is inside you

These visions make us desperate
Give us hope
The end is always the start of a
New episode feel free to interact with the plot
The choice can really mean a lot
Just try to translate this secret code

These visions make us desperate
Give us hope
The end is always the start of a
New episode

Feel free to interact with the plot
Your choice can really mean a lot
Just try to
Just try to

Just try to translate this
