You hurt me (when I've got so much more to give)
I must have been blind adoring the blues in everything lies a small kind of truth but then again,
just when I thought you were staying for good you left for no reason was that all you could you're still a man
it's not what I want
it's not what I need
nothing but lies and way too much heat just when I thought you were telling the truth I caught you with her oh you fool
you hurt me when I've got so much more to give you hurt me when I've got so much more to give We live in denial adoring what's new in everything lies a small kind of blues
but then again,
just when I thought you would leave me for good you stayed for no reason although we were through
you're still a man
it's not what I want
it's not what I need
I caught you with her oh you fool
you hurt me when I've got so much more to give
