Love, Love, Love, Love, Love
Giving me
Love, Love, Love
More than I ever need

Verse

Love, you're so distracting
Am I overreacting, For feeling this way
And ever, since I met ya, I can't keep my attention
And you are to blame

Chorus

You're love's a permanent distraction, a perfect
interaction
A feeling so extreme
I lost my appetite to eat, and I barely get to sleep
Cause you're even in my dreams
And I thought that I was strong but I knew that all along,
this was out of my control
So I fell into your hands, and I don't know where we'll land,
I'm just going with the flow

Love, Love, Love, Love, Love

Verse

Someday, I want to run away
This feels so perfect, it's breaking my heart
Yeah we could, we could stay here happy
Or after summer, be two worlds apart

Chorus

You're love's a permanent distraction,
A perfect interaction
A feeling so extreme
I lost my appetite to eat, and I barely get to sleep
Cause you're even in my dreams
And I thought that I was strong but I knew that all along,
This was out of my control
So I fell into your hands, and I don't know where we'll
land,
I'm just going with the flow

Giving me, Love Love Love, Love Love
More than I ever need
Giving me Love Love Love

Bridge

You're Love, Is coming like a freight train
Ain't nothing gonna stop it,
It's heading for my heart,
You're Love, is bigger than a rain cloud
It covered up my whole skies
It's filling up my heart,
My heart with
Love, Love, Love, Love, Love
More than I ever need
Giving me
Love, Love, Love

Chorus

You're love's a permanent distraction, a perfect
interaction
A feeling so extreme
I lost my appetite to eat, and I barely get to sleep
Cause you're even in my dreams
And I thought that I was strong but I knew that all along,
this was out of my control
So I fell into your hands, and I don't know where we'll
land,
I'm just going with the flow

Giving me
Love, Love, Love, Love, Love
More than I ever need
