Everything I know has left and gone away
So much for believing what you say
I feel my state of mind is really your mistake
The more I give the more you seem to take
My reality will never be the same
Maybe I should just start over

I never knew that my life would be better
Off this way
Off this way
Until now I didn't think that I could ever
Feel again
Feel again

Whoa whoa whoa

Now I come to you believing in myself
When you look you see somebody else
I can't pretend I want to end up just like you
Blaming me is all you seem to do
I tried to be the one you wanted me to be
But no one had the eyes to notice

I never knew that my life would be better
Off this way
Off this way
Until now I didn't think that I could ever
Feel again
Feel again

I think it's time I let you know
Ehat you did to me is real
You heard me cry but looked the other way
I'm not saying this for you
'Cause you'll never understand
I'm not the one who's broken

I never knew that my life would be better
Off this way
Off this way
Until now I didn't think that I could ever

Feel again
Feel again

I never knew that my life would be better
Off this way
Off this way
Until now I didn't think that I could ever
Feel again
Feel again
