This ritual
is a crushing of the spirit sleepless and suffering I have broken
it's been dark
the light of day
is months away
and I am years from what I used to be I've tried so hard to find a piece of myself for the love of pain I push on through it all
wake up. do it again
DAY IN AND DAY OUT

connecting fully to the stings of sorrow so let the judgement pass because there's no tomorrow
I did it for love
but only hurt you instead just blame and betray with nothing left to give Days In. Days Out
no more.
