Frequency is the only thing I'm hearin'
When the day falls short of being perfect
And I won't spite these words
I guess I'll save my breath

(Chorus)

Go where the road takes you home
There's no reason to turn back now
Find something inside yourself that makes you dream
And is that something you or me

I thought we had it right
For the for the very first time

My emotions got the best of me
Intoxicated at the thought
That we could be anything

(Chorus)

Sympathy is for the weak they say
Aching's been a custom way to long
It's the price we pay to follow our dreams

(Chorus)

I thought we had it right (Follw your dreams)
I guess I'll save my breath
