Your not finding the answers
You've been lookin' for Oh you try and try
Cant find an open door
Your not sure of you next step
If it's wrong or right
You could use a friend
And here I am tonight

Your world stoped turnin'
You were tired of hurtin'
And believin' in something you just can't do

But I believe in you
When you at your weakest
When you feel like you life
Fallin' into peices
Just remeber that I love you even though sometimes you can't believe it's ture
I Believe in you

Your shin deep in the water
You tried walkin' on
And your wearin' down
You think you can't go on

Im right hear beside you
With my stubborn love
And i wont give in or let you give up no matter what Your gunna make it through

Your world stoped turnin'
You were tired of hurtin'
And hopein' in sumthin you just can't do

But I believe in you
When your at your weakest
When you feel like you life
Fallin into pieces
Just remeber that I love you even though sometimes you can't believe it's true

I believe in you

Just remember that I love you even though sometimes you're not sure I still do
