Stop, look, listen
This is a question
Why won't you answer?
Why won't you just give us an answer?
Why won't you just give us an answer?

If you sing a couple of words
the world moves
It changes because you do
It changes cause we needed it to
You needed it too

If you sing a couple of words
The world moves
It changes because you do
It changes cause we needed it to
You needed it too

It's time to listen
This is a problem
What's wrong with asking
Why won't you just give us an answer?
Why won't you just give us an answer?

If you sing a couple of words
The world moves
It changes because you do
It changes cause we needed it to
You needed it too

If you sing a couple of words
The world moves
It changes because you do
It changes cause we needed it to
You needed it too
