There's a light
Covers up my doorway
Flickering light
Never run away
And I might, I might be going your way
Say you might
Might help me on my way
Umm what a sight
Sight to burn thee ego
Keep you warm
And never let go
And the light coming my way
Compare to what others have seen
But Napoleon the strong
He once had it
As a sound that was loud in his dream
And I stand locked before the wave
Wind and snow, heaven and night
And you know
Where ever men like that stay
I can feel it burning in my eyes
And the light coming my way
Compare to what others have seen
But Napoleon the strong
He once had it
As a sound that was loud in his dream
Heaven's sound it's driving me wild
If only I know that it's right
I got this message that makes me feel good
Carries me out through the night
Hold me, hold me, hold me, hold me
Well I go through life like a hurricane lamp
Riding the road as I go
Spreading this music
Injecting the light
Please let it stay, never go
Hold me, hold me, hold me, hold me
I think I'm Napoleon
And others before
I rather seem to exist
Hey now follow it, follow it
Keep it in sight

Napolean would never have missed
Hold me, hold me, hold me, hold me
