I never walk in the street
Or gather round where people meet

With you on my head
And me on my toes
Wondering what everyone knows
Wondering what everyone knows

I buy a stamp for the post
But all my letters are lost
With you on my head
And me on my toes
Wondering what everyone knows
Wondering what everyone knows
Wondering what everyone knows

Darkness in white
You can feel through the light
Of the darkest cloud and touch my hand
Darkness in white
You can feel through the light
Of the darkest cloud and touch my hand

You are a sound in my head
Sew up my ears with your thread
With you on my head
And me on my toes
Wondering what everyone knows
Wondering what everyone knows
Wondering what everyone knows

Darkness in white
You can feel through the light
Of the darkest cloud and touch my hand
Darkness in white
You can feel through the light
Of the darkest cloud and touch my hand
My hands
Touch my hands.
