I like the way you look at me
And I feel so defenseless
I must admit I'm tempted
But there's a little voice, keeps screamin' in my ear
Says he'll love me for a minute
And then he'll disappear

I need to take my time
You need to prove you're not that kind

Slow down
Baby, take a breath and slow down
Before you do something that you might regret
'Cause I don't love you yet
I think you think you understand
But you don't know who I am
Slow down

You don't know my favorite colour yet
Or any of my secrets
If you did could you keep 'em
You don't know my hopes, my thoughts, my dreams
We've barely scratched the surface
But the way just might be worthed

We won't get passed tonight
If we don't do this right

Slow down
Baby, take a breath and slow down
Before you do something that you might regret
'Cause I don't love you yet
I think you think you understand
But you don't know who I am

And I'm not tryin' to say that there's not a lot of love
That I'd like to show you
But I don't know you (I don't know you)
And if you take the time to find out what I have in mind
Then I'd know you
You'd really understand

Slow down
Baby, take a breath and slow down
Before you do something that you might regret
'Cause I don't love you yet
I think you think you understand
But you don't know who I am

Slow down (slow down)
Baby, take a breath and slow down
Before you do something that you might regret (you might regret)
'Cause baby, I don't love you yet
You think you understand
But you don't know who I am

Slow, slow down
Slow, slow down - slow down
Slow, slow down - slow down
Slow, slow down
