The darkness is turned to black
They can't never say go back

L'ets GO!
Chemical weapons attack
The darkness is turned to black
They can't never say go back
Cause all want to win the match
And i want to fight back

War, this fucking pain that I seek Around the world it's not peace
God damned power of destruction
And i want to fight back

Chemical weapons attack
The darkness is turned to black
They can't never say go back
Cause all want to win the match
And i want to fight back

Community of soldiers is fighting to our country
USA is stronger then the other Politycy
And all those war masters who want the best artillery
Nuclear disaster, the war of technology
Storm of bombing is coming from the ennemies planes Destruction of inncents, what do they think in their brains?
Too many people are killed, yes they fall like the rain
Population reduction, single positive point

I scream when I see these fucking tragedies
The peace is out of reach
Break the life of humanity

break the life of humanity
break the life, break the life (bis 4)

Break the life of , break the life of fucking humanity
