Guess what we've screwed up
We are lost and cursed
How I can explain this Being worst

How we
All decided to
Break all our
Lives in two
Always
One step further
Two more backward
Towards you

Don't choke on breathing
Walking through the red lights
Heaven is full of souls
Here there ain't no more signs

All I can see right now
Is covered up with dust
(And) what I'm looking for is
Flesh and blood

Don't choke on breathing
Don't bid sight in the light
Don't choke on breathing
Don't bid sight in the light

How we
All decided to
Break all our
Lives in two
Always
One step further
Two more backward
To the truth

Don't choke on breathing
Walking through the red lights
Heaven is full of souls

Here there ain't no more signs

You walk on by this battle field
And break out since you chose to live
This lonely grave, cold stones and hush

And now this place is crying out
Can you hear it?

This is what I see
A cold and brave new world
Where every feeling
Now seems to be gone

Now seems to be gone

Don't choke on breathing

And break out since you chose to live

Now seems to be gone
