at the end of time
the moon will be as blood blackened is the sun
stars will fall to earth
fire
hail and blood
rain upon the earth
fallen star opens the abyss smoke released darkens the sky storms of thunder
disastrous quakes

hail pelts the earth
plagues infest
blood of a corpse
becomes the sea
assembly of kings
gather for war
fire descends
devouring all
complete destruction
absolute annihilation
the day of total armageddon holocaust
