"Always A Stranger"

All of my life I've been searching
Looking for a place I could fit in
But I never seemed to find the answers
To what I'm desperately seeking

I've been trying to know for so long
And I still wonder where I belong
It's been haunting my mind 'cause

It feels like I'm always a stranger
Wherever I go
Destined to wander forever
Out on my own
With no place I can call home

Millions of people around me
Build their lives on things I can't relate to
Why should I play a part and pretend to join them
Or deny what I believe to be true?

I can't conform to their shallow values
Nor abandon my fair right to choose
But it keeps me apart and

It feels like I'm always a stranger
Wherever I go
Destined to wander forever
Out on my own
With no place I can call home

I've been trying to know for so long
And I'm still wondering where I belong
I can't be the only one but

It feels like I'm always a stranger
Wherever I go
Destined to wander forever
Live all alone
And move on and on and on
It feels like I'm always a stranger
Wherever I go

Doomed to stray forever and ever
Out on my own
With no place I can call home
