Egomaniac full of ambition
Driven by dreams of fame
Media exposure is your religion
And your God is your name
So convinced that you're the greatest
You despise all that's different from you
And you slag those who do what you do

Flamboyant loud speaking poseur
Obsessed by your image
Keen on boasting 'bout your golden future
And your wonderful plans
Showin' off is what you're the best at
But all these admirations you crave
Can't arise from the way you behave

You'd better come down before it's too late
Before the day you look at yourself and see
An old conceited stuck-up wanna-be
