I used to take your loyalty for granted
I could have bet my life on you
That's why it hurt so bad to find out
How you took me for a fool

So please don't come and tell me
That we can still make a brand new start
You 've shown your talent for treason
And today I know who you really are
There's no turning back and

Don't beg for mercy 'cause you sealed your fate
You had all your chances but now it's too late
Don't beg for mercy when all hope is gone
You've got to pay for all that you've done

Before I learnt, you thought you were so clever
As the crooked master of the game
Now you must face the consequences
With no-one but yourself to blame

So please don't come and tell me
That we can still find an easy way out
I've got no room for forgiveness
You just fell from grace, you'd better give up the fight
Or you could only make things worse and

Don't beg for mercy 'cause you sealed your fate
You had all your chances but now it's too late
Don't beg for mercy when all hope is gone
You've got to pay for all that you've done

Don't beg for mercy 'cause you sealed your fate
You had all your chances but now it's too late
Don't beg for mercy when all hope is gone
You've got to pay for all that you've done
Don't beg for mercy 'cause you sealed your fate
Don't beg for mercy, now it's far too late
