She fooled me twice.
I deserve to die. I'm a failing comedian.
Very funny. telling inside jokes won't win the approval of the crowd.
What happened to applause in my head?
What happened to the old timers atta boy?
I always find myself with the dull and undeserving.
Is it better to love or fear a king?

The king is gonna have an accident.
My minds made up.
Her subjects loathe her because of mishandling
foreign affairs
And her inability to properly maintain funds in the treasury.
It is not my lot to shoo flies.
Bring me the gun and the bullets! I'll make it look like a suicide!
