I spit on your face!
Let them rot!
I crush your heart!
And all joy which you keep in your heart.
I crush hope and the belief that is in you.
Listen, you will die now!
Your time is over!
I laugh at you and your Father!
I laugh at your feeble race!

You will die now!
Your story is to have it's ending!
For so long I waited this moment, now my joy is greatest!
You died now!
I wrapped your life with ropes of death and I suffocated
it laughing.
You, Christ, are now dead !
