"Of Words... To Darkness"

Christian child!
Give your life to me!
Leave your Godstained body, forget happiness and
life!
Take your life, kill yourself!
At same time you kill God and his stinking spirit in you!
Kill your mortal body, don't let it anymore breathe
life!
Come to us, come to Darkness!
I promise you no lies, leave the misleader, he who carries the crown of thorns but never will become a king!

Know this, when your hand takes you to death you already have redeemed yourself dominion!
For you is a throne beside me, rule with me!
Eternity is for you too, child, take your life!
Come strong beside me, come to glory for in Death is all true power.
