"When We Set God's Home In Flames"

Visit "When We Set God's Home In Flames" on MotoLyrics.com

When we set God's home in flames blazes the goodness into ash in fire.
A symbol of God's death as well as your belief.
Your minds are empty, full of ash.
Christ is gone.
We rape Virgin Mary, we impale your Mother with flaming seeds.
We breed into her a death that is to be born upon you.
We make the soil beneath you unfertile, coldbreathing and black.

Behold, the flames climb to the sky, the Father of your race will rot in his deserted paradise.
Kill yourselves!
We bring you an eternal death, we bring you the end.
No one will ever miss you.
You are soon gone, forever.
Crushed by the proud northern might.
