[Karyn:]

You don't believe in me like you used to
It was always the perfect vision of me and you
But I guess that's life for a girl

[Katrina:]

You don't want to fulfill those fantasies
Laughing and making love over a couple drinks
Guess you don't want me in your world, your world

[Pre-Chorus - Both:]

And I never will forget those days
It was perfect, but now it's not okay

[Chorus - Both:]

I'm broken and I need someone to heal me
(KARYN - You never believed in me)
How long will it take for you to let us be?
(KATRINA - You're so gone far as I can see)
Oh I'll figure it out when it all boils over
But for now I don't have a crying shoulder
Yeah I'm broken, fix me again

[Karyn:]

You played your cards right, had me at the beginning
And since baby we locked eyes my disbelief was thinning
But I guess you don't need a girl

[Katrina:]

Picture perfect, dreaming in pearl white wedding dress
I had it envisioned and for me dear you were the best
But then you stole away my world, my world

[Pre-Chorus - Both:]

And I will never forget your smile
I'll search for your love for miles and miles and miles

[Chorus - Both:]

I'm broken and I need someone to heal me
(KARYN - You never believed in me)
How long will it take for you to let us be?
(KATRINA - You're so gone far as I can see)

Oh I'll figure it out when it all boils over
But for now I don't have a crying shoulder
Yeah I'm broken, fix me again

[Karyn:]

Oh, the pain just can't get any stronger

[Both:]

Breathing in and breathing out has never taken longer

[Karyn:]

The tears I cry at night are freezing in their place now
And I'm trying and trying so hard to fade your face out

[Chorus - Both:]

I'm broken and I need someone to heal me

(KARYN - You never believed in me)

How long will it take for you to let us be?

(KATRINA - You're so gone far as I can see)

Oh I'll figure it out when it all boils over

But for now I don't have a crying shoulder

Yeah I'm broken, fix me again

[Chorus - Both:]

I'm broken and I need someone to heal me

(KARYN - You never believed in me)

How long will it take for you to let us be?

(KATRINA - You're so gone far as I can see)

Oh I'll figure it out when it all boils over

But for now I don't have a crying shoulder

Yeah I'm broken, fix me again
