Every night I lay around, drowning in insomnia
I can't help the wondering why I always dream of ya
And if you're not over your ex
But I'm still dying to be your next
I want to hold you in my arms and kiss you
I never want to see the end through
Unless I'm seeing it with you

There's too much pressure in my head
There's too much pressure in my head
There's too much pressure in this bed
There's too much things that are left unsaid

I never want to let go of this dream
But I hope it doesn't turn into a nightmare
I don't want to run away alone and scared
So make me beautiful in your eyes again
I never want to see the end
Unless I'm seeing it with you
Do you feel the same way too?

There's too much pressure in this world
Leaves me dazed and in an endless whirl
There's too much pressure in this world
Leaves me dazed and in an endless whirl
Leaves me dazed and in an endless whirl

Maybe it's just all in my head
Maybe I should let it escape instead
But I won't tell you how I feel
And that I'm falling and it's real
That I'm falling and it's real

I don't want to to let go of this dream
Even though it's slipping into a nightmare
Even though I'm slipping into a nightmare
