[Katrina:]

Here we go again, drugs fame and rock and roll
Always racing, strippers riding up their poles
Get high at the sound of the sirens
Scene queens catching on like a virus
Making love in the club just for the press
In the bathroom, girls fixing their hair and getting dressed
For the boys, the horny boys
The silly girls need new toys

[Chorus - Both:]

We all die young anyway so give me another shotglass
baby
I won't settle for second best, but that's all there has been lately
Sex drugs and the music in me
Making me taste the colors I see
The fame will blow your speakers so let it go
Throw your hands up if you want to give 'em a show

[Katrina:]

Vicodin to take away the pain of never knowing
The aftermath of the overdose started showing
Guess maybe this girl should've been more safe with it
But then again it's never like here to really give a shit
Asking silly questions just to find the answer
The razors breaking and the cuts in her hands hurt
And it's all for the attention
She just wants the attention

[Chorus - Both:]

We all die young anyway so give me another shotglass
baby
I won't settle for second best, but that's all there has
been lately
Sex drugs and the music in me
Making me taste the colors I see
The fame will blow your speakers so let it go
Throw your hands up if you want to give 'em a show

[Katrina:]

Maybe when you give up this is life
Living in the agony and in a sea of strife

[Karyn:]

Maybe we can win this everlasting fight
It's time for you to go now, there's a rave tonight

[Chorus - Both:]

We all die young anyway so give me another shotglass
baby
I won't settle for second best, but that's all there has
been lately
Sex drugs and the music in me
Making me taste the colors I see
The fame will blow your speakers so let it go
Throw your hands up if you want to give 'em a show
The fame will blow your speakers so let it go
Throw your hands up if you want to give 'em a show
The fame will blow your speakers so let it go
Throw your hands up if you want to give 'em a show
