Hit and run by love
But broken less than I ask for Just another crease Another bump to pass by,
a bruise to heal

I've gotten the wouldn't you rather be friends
I guess that could make sense
If we hadn't kissed
If you hadn't made me feel like I could never be missed

Let on by love and crushed by love Well, it's nothing to cry for I'm not the first to be lied to
A tainted heart, rancid lust
Never should, never said,
never felt
Sorry

Everlasting love
Turned out to be nothing
Ha-it's rather bleak-yeah
But I've been sucker punched one hell of a lot.

Let on by love and crushed by lust
Well, it's nothing to cry for
I'm not the first to be lied to
A tainted heart, rancid lust
Never should, never said,
never felt
Sorry for falling love
A one night off and I wanted more
But I never felt, never said, never been, sorry.
