Winters coming days die short
at the end of autumns reign hunger becomes ravenous hibernation never waits soon the silent slumber for now october's feast fearless and graceful crashing through dead leaves

DON'T FEED THE BEARS
OR THE BEARS WILL FEED ON YOU

all the forest fauna
frozen feeling fear
flinching at the moment face to face with face of bear all the forest creatures vanish from sight
their betters come with hungers that cannot be denied

soon the silent dreaming's coming
hunger's drumming
nights grow long
neither plant or beast
have walls or doors

to protect them from the greatest of the omnivores towering
over my head
terrible beauty
FUCK I'M DEAD!

THE HUNGER!
THE HUNGER!
THE HUNGER!
THE HUNGER!

Fall is falling
stars are conquering

dead branches soaked with rain Bear gut glut on critters heavy eyes feeling weight twilight sighs
in animal eyes
a new cycle will begin this winter when trees are white the fauna is free from him

DON'T FEED THE BEARS
OR THE BEARS WILL FEED ON YOU

I'll die with the honor i choose I'll fight face of bear and lose

FACE TO FACE WITH FACE OF BEAR
FACE TO FACE
WITH FACE OF BEAR
FACE TO FACE
WITH FACE OF BEAR
FACE TO FACE
WITH FACE OF BEAR
FACE THE BEAR
I'LL FACE THE BEAR
FACE THE BEAR
