Hand on the rails and
Hand in the fire
The damage that's done by Love and desire
Summon the courage
Find the strength
Whatever it takes to any length
I'll go and come back once again
It's a matter of life and
A matter of death too
A feeling that I just can't Put words to
Summon the courage
Find the strength
Whatever it takes to any length
I'll go and come back once again
Stay in my heart
Stay with me here

Stay with me now and don't let go
Some things look better
when you're further away
Sometimes it's better to be further away
Stay in my heart
Stay with me here
Stay with me now and don't let go
Wanting you more
Staying with you less
When I'm with you
I'm only feeling my best
Some things look better
when you're further away
Sometimes it's better to be further away
